| Your sleeping routine(what time you normally wake up and sleep) | For work, I usually wake up at 6-7 am and then I try to sleep before midnight. |
| How do you describe your personality? | I'm a bit quiet and calm at first, but I open up a lot once I'm comfortable with someone. I enjoy more in-depth, serious conversations, but most of the time I'm rather playful if not a little childish. I'm practical about most things, but I enjoy simple, silly pleasures as well. |
| Your merits and flaws (please be more detailed about the flaws part) | Merits:- I really value open communication and appreciate criticism towards myself, if needed.- I tend to be objective about most things and try to see things from all sides. I'm open to change my mind if given the right arguments.- I'm very loyal and truthful, lying is something that's very difficult for me.Flaws:- I am inexperienced in relationships, so my hesitation and awkwardness might be frustrating to some. It might take me a bit longer to open up and I tend to be nervous around men. More patience than usual might be needed.- I can be a bit nitpicky, maybe critical with things that I prefer to be done in a certain way.- I tend to not handle stress very well and might get nervous easily. |
| Your love language (physical touch, share time, gifts, compliments, or other) | To people I love, I tend to use shared time and acts of service as a love language. I naturally gravitate towards physical touch as well, but only when we are close enough.From my partner, I would like to receive the same, but words of affirmation would also be appreciated. |
| Diet Type (vegan, vegetarian or mix. What kind of food do you like? What you don't eat?) | I have a few things I don't like, but I don't have any specific dietary restrictions. I like to try new things. |
| Do you want to get married soon? if so, how soon you can get married. | I would prefer to date for a while first, since I'm inexperienced, but it depends on the relationship I have with my partner. |
| What's your opinion about having children? | I would love to have children in the future, but would prefer to focus on travelling and enjoying my partner one-on-one for a few years. |
| Your idea about marriage life (family role, financial contribution, etc.) | I prefer equal engagement in professional and home life from both partners. However, contributions should be discussed and adjusted according to the financial situation and life in general. I would not mind discussing it with my partner. |
| In the future do you want to live in China or elsewhere | I would not mind relocating, but I prefer to live in a city and not rural. |
