Traveling, learning foreign languages, and discovering new cultures make me feel alive. I know many poems by heart and believe that words can stay with us forever. I enjoy staying active and love playing volleyball and basketball. I also love horses - their beauty, elegance, and free spirit have always

Your idea about marriage life (family role, financial contribution, etc.)	I see marriage as a partnership with complementary roles. I would like to focus on my family, creating a warm and comfortable home, travelling and enjoying life together. I do not plan to work after marriage. I believe the man should be the main financial provider, while the woman contributes through love, care, support and creating a happy home. For me, an ideal marriage is based on trust, respect, love and mutual appreciation.
